

Imperative

Повелительное наклонение (когда говорим что-то сделать или не делать)

Listen and repeat.

We use the imperative to tell one or more people to do or not to do something.

Мы используем повелительное наклонение, когда говорим человеку что-то сделать, или наоборот, просим что-то не делать.

1. Listen and write.

Answer	Write	Sit	Read	Listen	Colour
1	2	3	4	5	6
...Answer... the question. 	...the picture. 	...down. 	...to this song. 	...the sign! 	...your name in capital letters.

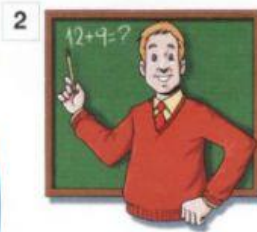

Positive	Negative

2. Write in negative.

- Close your book!
...Don't close your book!...
- Wear your jacket!
.....

- Run!
.....
- Look at me!
.....

3. Match the sentences to the pictures.

Don't talk!
Look at the board!
Don't take photos!
Don't eat in here!
Don't sit there!

4. Put the words in order

1 hair / brush / your.

2 the / music / listen to.

3 picture / look at / the.

4 down / jump / and / up!

5 to / count / 10.

6 cola / don't / drink.

7 sing / in class / don't.

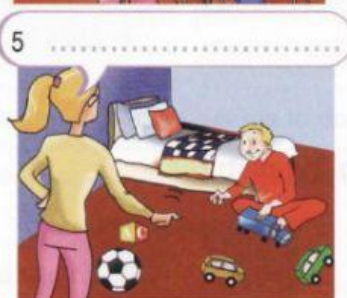

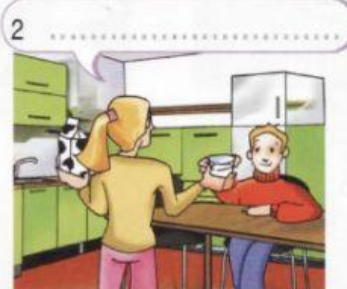

8 your / dinner / eat .

5. Match the sentences to the pictures.

Brush your teeth!
Go to bed!

Tidy your room!
Drink your milk!

Do your homework!
Wake-up!

6. Write the sentences

In the classroom ...	Do	Don't
Eat.		✓
Be quiet.
Play football.
Listen to your teacher.
Look at the board.
Look out the window.

- 1 Don't eat!
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6