Grammar Review

I. Rewrite each sentence correcting the relative pronoun mistake.

I. Germany was the country which the war started.

---

2. Jane is the girl whose her puppy got lost last week.

---

3. These boots, which they were a present from Gran, are truly comfortable.

---

4. Mike, whose was the shortest kid in class, grew up really fast this year.

II. Complete the conversations. Put in will or going to with the verbs.

Example:

Anne: Have you chosen your dress for the party?
Ruth: Yes, I have. I am going to wear (wear) a long blue dress.

I. Mum: I just heard the doorbell, but I'm busy here.

Jake: Don't worry, mum. I _____ (get) it.

2. Sue: Are you going anywhere for the holidays?

Jess: Sure we are! We haven't decided where, though. We _____ probably _____ (go) to the beach.

3. Dad: Where are you going?

Eric: I _____ (see) some friends, dad. I told you yesterday.

4. Waiter: May I take your order?

Nick: Sure. I _____ (have) the steak and fries, please.

5. Nancy: You always arrive late!

Stacy: I know, I'm sorry. I promise _____ (not be) late again.

III. What would you say? Use will or be going to.

Example:

You see your clock. It's 7:55 and you're still halfway. Your appointment is at 8.
Your friend: Are you coming?
You: Yes, I am, but I am going to arrive late.

I. You're allergic to cats. Your friend has two at home. You sneeze every time you're near a cat.
Your friend: You're coming tomorrow, aren't you?
You: Yes, I am. Please, keep your cats, or I _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. You know you have an important exam, so you decided to study in the afternoon.
   Your friend: We're going to play some games later. Coming?
   You: No, sorry. _____

3. You suddenly decide you want to drink lemonade.
   Your friend: Do you want anything to drink?
   You: Yes, please. _____

4. Your friend tells you a secret and you promise to keep it.
   Your friend: Please, don't tell anyone, especially Jake!
   You: Of course not. I promise _____

IV. Choose the correct pronouns to complete the sentences below.

1. She bought ..... a new pair of shoes because she's got an important event next week.
2. It's grandma's birthday next week, so we got ..... a beautiful present.
3. I heard Jack was a little sad. Why don't we invite ..... to play with us?
4. The mad scientist talked to ..... in the laboratory trying to find answers to the questions no one could answer.
5. Teacher, can you help ....., please? We cannot understand this exercise.
6. "Mom, we don't need a babysitter! We're almost 13 and we can take care of .....
7. My neighbors are really nice, so I baked ..... these chocolate cookies.
8. The kittens can't clean ..... yet, so their momma does it for them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS