Grammar 2

(not) as + adjective + as

"It's not as big as a normal computer."

affirmative	negative
I'm as funny as you are. He's as tall as his brother.	I'm not as tidy as my sister. He isn't as quiet as his dad.

We use (not) as + adjective + as to say things or people are (not) equal in some way.

Grammar reference • page 125

1 Match the sentences with the same meaning.

1 e

1 The smartphone isn't as expensive as the laptop.
2 The laptop is as old as the smartphone.
3 The smartphone isn't as cheap as the laptop.
4 The smartphone isn't as old as the laptop.
5 The smartphone is as expensive as the laptop.

a The smartphone costs €200 and the laptop costs €100.
b The smartphone costs €200 and the laptop costs €200.
c The laptop is one year old and the smartphone is one year old.
d The laptop is two years old and the smartphone is one year old.
e The smartphone costs €200 and the laptop costs €300.

1
2
3
4
5

2 Complete the second sentence so it has the same meaning as the first. Use the opposite adjective.

1 as big as

1 Modern computers are smaller than old computers.
Modern computers aren't ... old computers.
2 A laptop is lighter than a desktop.
A laptop isn't ... a desktop.
3 A smartphone is usually more expensive than a normal phone.
A smartphone isn't usually ... a normal phone.
4 My Wi-Fi connection is slower than your connection.
My Wi-Fi connection isn't ... your connection.
5 Her headphones are newer than my headphones.
Her headphones aren't ... my headphones.
6 I'm faster than my mum on the keyboard.
I'm not ... my mum on the keyboard.

1 as big as

2

3

4

5

6

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=58GjdEwZgLg&t=27s

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A2MlH5rjqZA

First conditional

"If we've got time, I'll show you how it works."

action/situation	result
If you plug it into a TV, If you don't write code,	you'll get a bigger screen. you won't get a job in IT.
result	action/situation
I'll be rich and famous He'll listen to you	if I learn to write code. if you talk to him.
questions
Will he play on Saturday If I tell you the answer,	if we ask him? will you be happy?

We use the first conditional to talk about the future result of an action or situation.

Grammar reference • page 125

3 Look at the tables. Choose the correct options.

1 Computers will disappear if they get / will get smaller.
2 If my brother learns to write code, he gets / will get a job as a computer programmer.
3 If my parents get / will get a new computer, they'l give me their old one.
4 I'll buy a new phone if I get / will get money for Christmas.
5 If my computer doesn't work, do / will you repair it
6 Do / Will you help me with my homework, if I repair your computer?

1 4
2 5
3 6

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

If I [1]... (pass) my exams this term, my parents [2]... (buy) me a new computer. If I [3]... (get) a new computer, I [4]... (start) my own YouTube channel. I [5]... (post) videos of my dog if I [6]... (get) my own channel. Everybody [7]... (be) amazed if they [8]... (see) her playing football. If one million people [9]... ('like') my channel, I [10]... (be) famous! And so will my dog! But if I [11]... (not pass) my exams, it [12]... (be) just a dream!

1	7
2	8
3	9
4	10
5	11
6	12

LIVEWORKSHEETS