Yesterday I went to the largest sauna in the world.
Then I swam in a frozen lake. There I saw impressive snowy forests.

Love, Mar xx

I wish you were all here and we could enjoy these fantastic moments together.

I am already in Finland. The weather is sunny but very cold. I'm having a great time. The views are amazing.

See you next week.

Tomorrow I will ride on ski-doo in some mountains
close to my hotel.
