Read and write the words.

Emma lives with her parents in the countryside. Last Saturday they went to London for the day. They took a bus round the city, and they saw lots of places. After their bus ride, they went to London Zoo. They saw giraffes, snakes, bears and monkeys. Emma did not like the monkeys. Her favourite animals were the giraffes.

Emma wanted to have lunch by the River Thames. They went to Angelo's Cafe and she had pasta and a lemonade. In the afternoon, they went for a walk in Hyde Park. They saw people riding horses.

Emma did not want to go home. Dad said, "Come on Emma. We've got to go now. But let's buy you an ice cream before we catch the train home."

It was the best end to the day.
