

4 ★ Put the verbs in brackets into the past simple.

- 1 A: Did you teach (you/teach) your dog to do that?
 B: No, he just (do) it himself. But I (teach) him to sit.
- 2 A: Who (write) the letter about the polar bears?
 B: I don't know, I (not/see) anybody at the computer.
- 3 A: My grandma (have) a lot of birds.
 B: Really? Where (she/keep) all of them?
 A: She (keep) some in cages and some in the garden.
- 4 A: (you/buy) enough cat food?
 B: I (buy) all they (have).
- 5 A: Do you know who (steal) the duck eggs?
 B: I think a snake (get) into the nest and (eat) them.

5 ★★ Put the verbs in brackets into the past simple.

In local news, a young lion 1 ran (run) away from the zoo yesterday. At around 3pm, it 2 (come) out of its cage and climbed over the wall. Then, it 3 (go) along Maple Street towards a group of houses. People say the lion was frightened by a noise and 4 (hide) under a car that was in front of a house. From there, it 5 (get) up a tree and climbed onto the roof of the house. The frightened animal slipped and 6 (fall) off the roof, luckily, onto a large bush. A neighbour 7 (tell) us that the people from the zoo helped the frightened lion and it 8 (be) home in time for dinner.

6 ★★ Read the Native American legend and put the verbs in brackets into the past simple.

"Rabbit Catches the Sun"

Long ago in Biloxi country, Rabbit 1 got (get) up early, 2 (leave) his house and hopped into the forest to go hunting. Along the way, he 3 (see) huge footprints on the path. "Wow! These are from a giant!" Rabbit 4 (think). He 5 (go) deep into the forest and searched everywhere for food, but 6 (find) none. Back at home, he 7 (tell) his grandma, "A giant hunted everything in the forest and there is nothing for us to eat." So, his grandma 8 (make) him a magic net and Rabbit 9 (get) up again the next day to hunt. When he returned, there was light coming from the magic net. "Oh no! I 10 (catch) the Sun!" he cried. Rabbit 11 (run) home and asked his grandma what to do. "Let the Sun free, look how dark it is everywhere," she said. Quickly, Rabbit 12 (get) back to where the Sun 13 (be). He 14 (shut) his eyes and 15 (cut) the net with a magic knife. Suddenly, the sun 16 (fly) back up into the sky and the land filled again with light.

Adverbs of manner

7 ★ Use the adjectives to form adverbs and then fill in the gaps.

- late • loud • good • careful

- 1 Our neighbour's dog barks loudly every morning and wakes me up.
- 2 Ben arrived at the pet shop and didn't get any food.
- 3 Pick up the tarantula so that you don't hurt it.
- 4 My mum's canary has got a beautiful voice and it can sing very