Our Name Is Panama

The Gunas are located in the Comarcas Guna Yala, Wargandi, and Madugandi. They speak Dulegaya and Guanagaya. They are famous for their "Molas" which are also part of the Guna women dress.

The Ngäbe- Buglé are located in Veraguas, Chiriquí, and Bocas del Toro. Their women wear naguas. They speak Ngäbere- Buglére. The traditional dance of this group is called Jequi.

The Emberá-Wounaan are located in the Comarca Emberá-Wounaan in Darién. They speak Emberá/Maach. This group is famous for their body painting called jagua. The women traditional dress is the Paruma and some of their dances are Guara and Ka.

The Mestizos are all over the country. They speak Spanish. Their favorite dishes are sancocho, rice with chicken, potato salad, and tamales.

The Afro-descendant people live in Colón, Bocas del Toro, Darién, and Panama. Some of them speak English and Spanish. They love to eat spicy food. Afro descendant women like to make and wear jewelry. Some of their groups love to dance congo and reggae.

We also have people born in our country who are descendants from foreigners. No matter our ethnicity, our name is Panama.
