

VOCABULARYMatch the opposites.

- |            |                |
|------------|----------------|
| 0 happy    | A shy          |
| 1 lazy     | B sad          |
| 2 generous | C rude         |
| 3 sociable | D hard-working |
| 4 polite   | E grumpy       |
| 5 cheerful | F selfish      |

Circle the correct word.

It's fun to <sup>0</sup>leave / travel to the city centre by train! But you need to <sup>1</sup>arrive at / go through the station early. Then you can buy your ticket and have time to <sup>2</sup>catch / miss your train. When you <sup>3</sup>take off / get on the train, you can find a seat and sit down. When the train gets to the city centre, you can <sup>4</sup>get off / land and go shopping. When you go home again, don't forget to <sup>5</sup>collect / show your bags before you leave the train.

GRAMMAR

Complete the sentences with the phrases in the box.

is arriving	starts	seeing	leaves
isn't coming	is meeting

- 0 The train leaves at 6 p.m.
- 1 John is arriving at the airport on Saturday.
- 2 We're seeing a film in town with our friends next week.
- 3 Jack isn't coming to the cinema with us because he's tired.
- 4 My favourite TV programme starts in ten minutes.
- 5 Sarah is meeting her mum in town later.

Complete with present simple or present continuous. It can refer both to the present or the future time.

- 1) I play (play) football every Saturday morning with my friends.
- 2) She swims (swim) very well.
- 3) The meeting finishes (finish) at 8.
- 4) I will meet (meet) my friend Tomas tomorrow for lunch.
- 5) They are talking (talking) on the phone at the moment.

Complete with present continuous for future or going to.

- 1) I am going (go) to my grandmother's house this weekend. I have already bought the train tickets.
- 2) They are joining (join) the choir next month but they haven't talked to the teacher yet.
- 3) My sister is travelling (travel) to Europe next year. She is planning the trip but has not booked hotels yet.
- 4) My father is visiting (visit) Peru next week. He is going on a business trip and he is staying (stay) at the Grand Hotel. Look! Here is the reservation!

COMMUNICATION

Match the questions and answers.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 0 Where's the ticket office, please?   | A It's £5.90. Here's your change. |
| 1 Can I have a ticket to London?       | B Yes, I have. Here it is.        |
| 2 Have you got a Railcard?             | C From number 3.                  |
| 3 What time does the next train leave? | D It's over there.                |
| 4 What platform does it leave from?    | E Of course. Single or return?    |
| 5 How much is it?                      | F At 10.25.                       |