This is a picture of me in my favorite café. It was only (1) _____ minutes walk from our hotel and we spent (2) _____ happy evenings there - nearly every evening, in fact! It had a really fantastic atmosphere, and the food was delicious. (3) _____ times a week, usually on Fridays and Saturdays, a live band played and everyone could dance. They had (4) _____ computers there too, so I could spend (5) _____ time during the evening checking my emails. I had so (6) _____ fun there. I'm really looking forward to going back.

Task Three. Read the text and do the True/False.

JOHN CLINTON, Restaurant Owner & Businessman

John Clinton opened his first "El Rio" restaurant in 2003, selling Mexican food in a bright, modern environment. It was an immediate success and he now has a chain of restaurants across the country. All this is not bad for someone who left school at the age of 15 with no idea of what he wanted to do with his life.

He had several jobs through his 20s and 30s, but none of them had anything to do with food or cooking. In fact, he started out as a "roadie" for a rock band. He looked after the band's instruments and sound equipment and set up the stage for them. After that, he became a stage designer. He designed sets for some very famous bands, and became well known in the industry, but he never felt satisfied with his achievements and was always thinking of other things he could do instead.

One day, he was discussing a few ideas with a friend of his, when the friend suggested he should open a restaurant. John says he knew straight away that that was what he wanted to do. He went away and began doing some research, and two years later he opened his first "El Rio". The rest is history.
