

Little Red Riding Hood

- 1) PREPARE the reading of this story, CONCENTRATE on the pronunciation ("_ed" sounds, "_s" sounds, links, syllable and word stress...)

Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Red Riding hood. One day she took a piece of cake to her grandma's house in the forest. In the middle of the forest, there was a big bad wolf. On her way to her grandmother's, Little Red Riding Hood met the wolf.

"Where are you going with this basket" of food little girl?" the wolf asked,
"To my grandma's," replied Little Red Riding Hood.

So the big bad wolf ran to her grandmother's house, ate the grandma and put on her clothes. Then, Little Red Riding Hood arrived at the house. She walked to the bed:

"What big eyes you have grandma!" she said.

"The better to see you with" the wolf answered.

"What big ears you have grandma!" she continued.

"The better to hear you with" the wolf replied.

"And what big teeth too!" Little Red Riding Hood said.

"The better to eat you with" the big bad wolf replied, and suddenly he jumped upon" her and ate her.
