

Circle.

1. Five / Eight climbers were climbing up the mountains when the weather changed.
2. The climb leader saw the rainstorm / snowstorm.
3. The climbers arrived at the base camp six / two days later.
4. They didn't find the five / two missing climbers.
5. The climbers were carrying backpacks / their tents.
6. The missing climbers were

True (T) or false (F)

1. All the climbers climbed to the top of the mountain.
2. Jim Thorne and the other climbers got lost in the snowstorm.
3. Jim Thorne said, 'It was easy to get to base camp'.
4. Six of the climbers didn't get to base camp.
5. Thorne and the others went back to find the missing climbers.

Tick ✓ the right one.

- a) While he was walking, he fell and sprained his ankle.
- b) He was lost in the mountains.
- c) He did something amazing for a friend.
- d) He isn't at the interview.
- e) While he was playing football, he broke his leg.

Neil	Dennis

Write in the opposite adjectives.

late terrible difficult fast dead

1. It wasn't easy to climb down the mountain. It was really
2. Unfortunately, when we found the lost climber he wasn't alive. He was.....
3. Jane had an early class this morning but she was..... and her teacher wasn't very happy.
4. It wasn't a good idea to go climbing yesterday. There was astorm.
5. Tim's old car was really slow so he bought a new car and it's very.....

Translate the sentences. (Student's book page 52.)

1. Valami szörnyű dolog történt.
2. Ez minden mászó rémálma.
3. Mindenki fáradt volt és fázott.
4. Két nappal később érkeztek meg az alaptáborba.
5. Csak hatan voltak 8 helyett.....
6. Nem hittem el.

7. Két hiányzó mászó.
8. Megsérültek.
9. Életben vannak vagy meghaltak.