

TASK 1.

Match the words on the left to their definitions on the right.

1. invalidate	a. to make people obey a rule or law
2. damages	b. a civil proceeding commenced by writ or in such other manner as may be prescribed by rule or court
3. action	c. a person or a group of people who take part in a transaction or legal proceeding
4. enforce	d. to make a document, claim, etc., no longer legally or officially accepted
5. party	e. money that a court orders someone to pay someone else for harming them or their property

TASK 3.

Complete the sentences translating the words and word combinations in brackets.

- Many people think of a contract as a (письмова угода) between people. However, there are many kinds of (усних угод) between people which the law of most countries describes as (угоди)
- One of the most common (юридичних позовів) is to claim that the contract has existed and that one of the parties is in (порушення угоди).
- There are many everyday (угод) which most people never think of as contracts.
- In order that the agreement should be a contract (сторони) must have shown an intention that their agreement should have legal consequences.
- In order that a (належно оформлена угода) between the (сторонами) should come into existence certain essential requirements must be fulfilled.
- The simple contract must be supported by (зустрічним задоволенням).
- In many systems of law there is a written code stating exactly what is required to make a contract and what (права та обов'язки) of contractors are.