

Grammar: Some / Any

A. Look at the Grammar Box.

The Teen Titans have SOME burgers and fries.

But Robin doesn't have ANY burgers and fries.

Yes! I have SOME!

No, I don't have ANY.

B. Connect the words to the pictures.

1. I have some balloons.
2. I have some juice.
3. I don't have any milkshakes.
4. I don't have any burgers.
5. I have some sandwiches.
6. I have some candles.
7. I don't have any popcorn.
8. I have some fruit salad.

C. Click on the correct words.

- Adam: It's Larry's birthday soon. Let's buy him a gift. What about a game or a puzzle?
- Tina: He has some / any video games but he doesn't have some / any puzzles.
- Adam: What else does he like? He loves trains.
- Sales Clerk: Look, we have some / any great toy trains! Does he like reading too?
- Adam: Yes, he does.
- Sales Clerk: We also have some / any books about trains.
- Adam: Larry doesn't have some / any books about trains.
- Tina: That's true. Let's buy him one.
- Sales Clerk: How about this book? It's very popular.
- Adam: That looks great. There's only one problem. I don't have some / any money!

D. Find four differences! Write four complete sentences! Look at the Examples.

	Preeti doesn't have any fruit salad. Diego has some balloons.
--	---	--

E. Watch Part 1 of the Story Video. What's on Suzie's shopping list? Click on ALL the correct words.

	a watermelon	tomatoes
	coconuts	milk
	cakes	noodles
	juice	chocolates
	cola soda	burgers