Escaping the Zoo!

Look at the map of the zoo and see how each animal can escape from where they are! Write the number of squares and direction(s) the animal s to move in to get to where it says "Exit". Make sure the animals are travelling through empty squares, where no other animals are.

There are also extra direction sentences in case you need it.

| Forward	Backward	Left	Right	Here are direction words to help!

How can the Lion exit the Zoo?

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

Exit

How can the penguin exit the Zoo?

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

Exit

How can the gorilla exit the Zoo?

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

Exit

How can the zebra exit the Zoo?

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

____ squares _____.

Exit

↑	↓	←	→
Forward	Backward	Left	Right

Here are direction words to help!

How can the seal exit the Zoo?

___ squares _____.
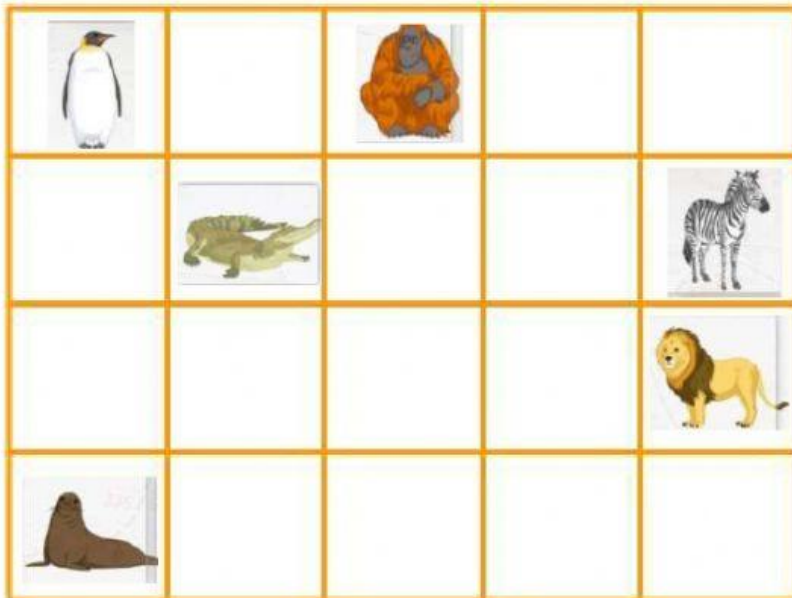

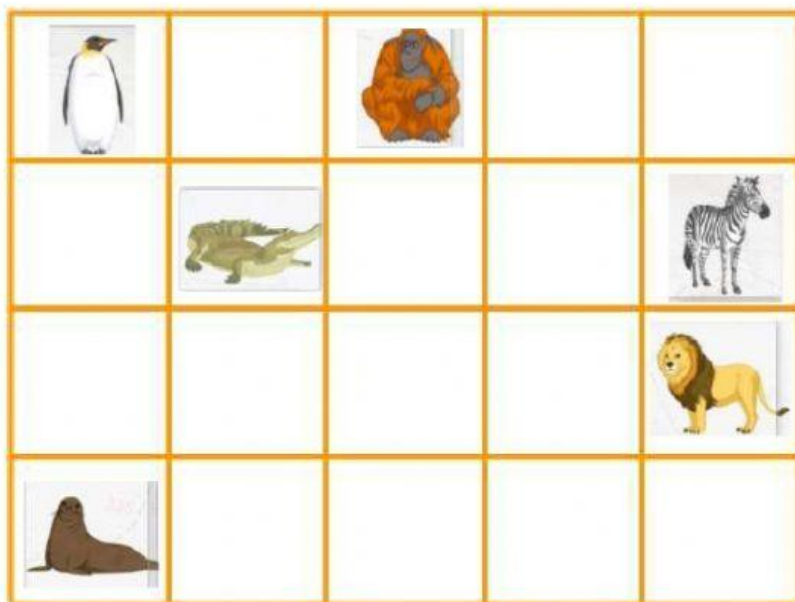

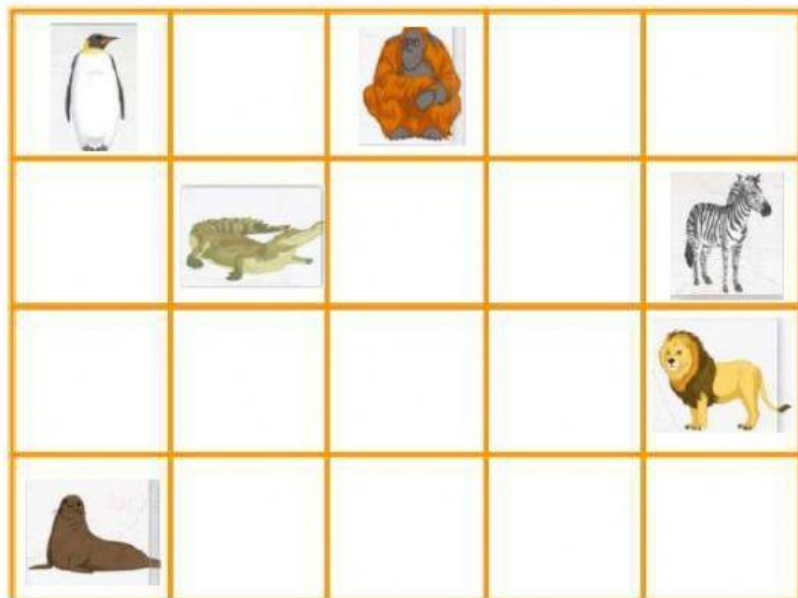

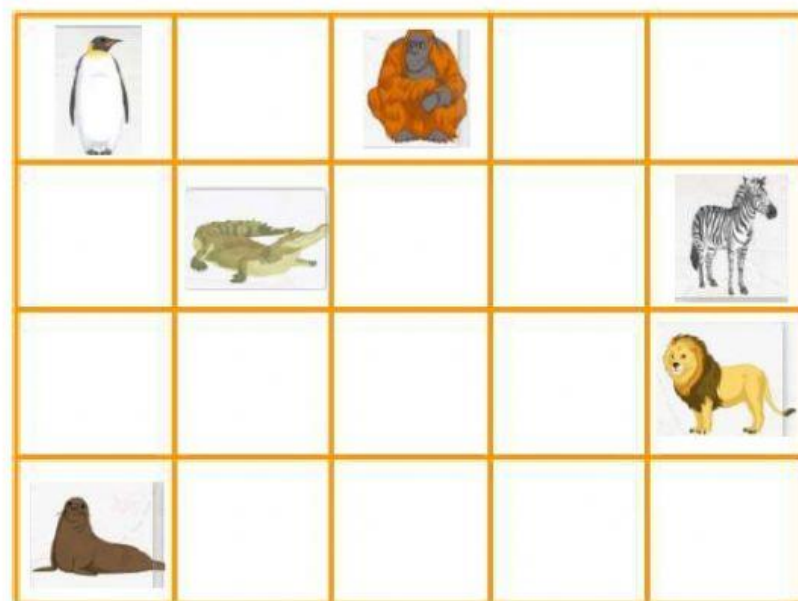

___ squares _____.

___ squares _____.

Exit

How can the alligator exit the Zoo?

___ squares _____.

___ squares _____.

___ squares _____.

Exit

| Forward | Backward | Left | Right |

Here are direction words to help!