

Use the Word Bank to complete the dialogs below. Use the correct form of the verb. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible.

^{/ˈɛməli/}

1. A: Emily just called. She's running five minutes late.

B: Really? But the movie is starting in five minutes!

A: Let's _____ her a text message. Now, what should we tell her?

^{/ˈmɪstər ˈtʃɔɪ/}

2. A: Hello, is Mr. Choi there?

B: He is, but he's _____ the phone right now.

A: Oh, OK. Can I _____ a message for him?

3. A: Your phone is ringing. Are you going to _____ it?

B: No, I'm not. I'm _____ my calls.

A: I see. Who are you trying to avoid?

4. A: Can I _____ your phone for a second?

B: Sure. Here you go.

A: Thanks. I have to _____ a couple of calls right away.

5. A: Your phone is beeping. I think you need to _____ your text messages.

B: You're right. Wow! I just _____ 13 new messages!

A: Really? Who are they from?