

VOCABULARY REVIEW UNIT 8

QUESTION	EXAMPLE
----------	---------

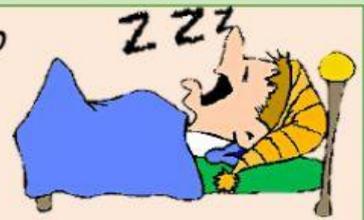

1. What do we call it when we make someone stay in one place or do nothing until we are ready to see or talk to them?

- Where is he? I hate it when he _____ me _____ like that!

2. What do we call the act of breathing noisily while sleeping?

My dad _____ so loudly that no one else can sleep!

3. What do you call something or someone that comes from another country, or is in another country?

Do you speak any _____ languages?

4. What do you call an idea you share about what you think someone should do or how someone should behave?

I have a _____: How about you call the store and ask them about it?

5. Which word do we use for showing that something belongs to a particular person or thing and not to any other?

One day I want to have my _____ house.

6. What do you call something typical and easily found?

Snow is _____ in winter.

7. What is another word for maybe?

You don't look well... _____ you should go to the doctor.

8. What is the act of grasping someone's hand with your hand and moving it up and down when you are meeting or saying goodbye to each other or as a sign of friendship or agreement?

In Europe we _____
_____ when we meet
someone for the first time.

9. What happens when we fail to agree? It's another word for argument or conflict.

There's been a lot of _____ about how best to spend the money.

10. How do you say "in" or "to" foreign country?

We try to travel _____ at least once a year, usually to England or the U.S.A. to practice
our English.

11. What's an expression we use when we suggest something for our friend to think about?

_____ 's a _____:
Why don't you listen to their songs yet, before you buy the album?

12. What do you say when someone is very enthusiastic about something?

Judd is _____ _____ planes and flying.

13. What do you do when you spend time relaxing, sleeping, or doing nothing after you have been active or doing work?

They expect to _____ while on vacation.

14. What do you call a small organization owned and run by one person or a few people?

After leaving school, Bob started his own
computer
_____.

15. What's the word we use for ideas, behaviour, or statements that are not true or sensible?

So you believe that _____ about ghosts?

16. What do you call the act of saying what will happen in the future?

Mary is really good at caring for others. My _____ is that she will be a great doctor one day.

17. What do you do when you say "no" to someone or something, especially in a polite way?

They _____
_____ our invitation.

Sorry I can't...
I have to walk my unicorn.

18. What do you call the consent you seek from an authority to do something?

I asked the teacher for _____ to hand in my homework late.

19. What do you call a device that is used to make music?

The piano was his favorite _____.

20. What do we call the knowledge a person gets through learning?

A high school _____ is needed for most jobs.

21. What do you call polite or well-bred social behavior?

It's nice to meet a young man with such _____.

22. What do you call something that you want to do very much, usually something that is also quite difficult to achieve?

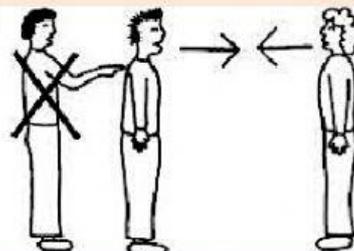

His _____ was to become a successful writer.

23. What do you call it when you begin to speak over or in the middle of, in a way that breaks off someone's sentence?

Never _____ the president while he is giving a speech.

DON'T BE
THAT GUY!

24. What do you call something that you think is extremely good?

We had an _____ time
at the concert.

25. What's another word we use to talk about a part or an element of something?

Our assignment was to write about one interesting _____ of space travel, so I chose the training of astronauts.

26. What do you call something used that had a previous owner?

He always buys
_____ -
_____ CDs.

27. What's another word for terrible, horrible or very unpleasant?

There was an _____ storm
last night.

28. What are we when we show good manners or when we are thoughtful and courteous of others;

He didn't like the food that was served to him, but he ate it to be _____.

