

PRESENT SIMPLE

1) Change the verb into the correct form.

The boy (want) to play.

We (be) good friends.

Peter (like) watching football.

Matías (live) in Mendoza.

I (read) a lot of books.

Lucy (be) a good girl.

She (swim) every day.

It (rain) a lot in winter.

2) Fill in the blanks with the Present Simple.

A: (you/come) here very often?

B: Yes, every morning.

A: My brother (play) tennis in the summer.

B: Really? So do I.

A: We (leave) the house at 6:30 every morning.

B: That's very early.

A: Sam (not/eat) meat.

B: I know, he's a vegetarian.

3) Put the verb in the correct form.

Joe (not/drink) tea very often.

..... (he/play) computer games?

I (like) going to the park.

..... (she/drink) coffee?

We (not/walk) to school.

It (take) me an hour to go to school.

..... (you/go) to work by train?

My dad (not/have) a car.

Daniel (fly) to Paris once a year.

..... (you/watch) movies?

Michael (not/live) in Chile.

3) Complete the sentence with the affirmative or negative form of the verb in brackets.

The plain (leave) in half an hour but

Nick (not/be) at the airport yet.

My best friend (love) superhero films but they (not/interest) me.

I (not/study) maths because it (be) very difficult.

The Sun (not/go) round the Earth, the Earth (go) round the Sun!

My new computer (do) lots more things than my old one, and it (not/crash).