Active or Passive?

1. Environmental pollution (cause)_____ serious ecological problems.
2. Air pollution (cause) by industrial plants that (release)_____ harmful substances into the air.
3. A lot of toxic gases (release)_____ into the air by our local plant.
4. More and more species of animals (disappear)_____ because their natural habitats (pollute) _____and (destroy)_____.
5. When acid rain (fall)_____ in lakes and rivers the water (change)_____ and it (kill)_____ fish.
6. A lot of trees (cut)_____ down every year because people (use)_____ wood to make paper and build houses.
7. The ecological balance of the planet (disturb)_____ by human beings.

Word-building (+ translate the words)

1. An increase in the greenhouse effect may lead to global WARM_____ with disastrous consequences.
2. Many POISON_____ substances produced by INDUSTRY_____ enterprises are HARM_____ to our SURVIVE_____. CHEMISTRY _____gases make breathing in many cities difficult.
3. Exhaust fumes have DAMAGE _____effects on the environment. The damage caused to the environment is BELIEVE. _____
4. It is important to know about ECOLOGY_____ problems.
5. British Petroleum is RESPONSE _____for the ENVIRONMENT_____disaster in the Gulf.
6. The state of the environment today is connected with humankind's efforts to make their lives more COMFORT_____. TECHNOLOGY_____, social and economic changes (sometimes called "progress") can have a DEVASTATE _____effect on the environment. They should also COURAGE _____factories and plants to use ECOLOGY _____friendly technologies. FORTUNE_____, they fail to do it.
7. Many countries must try and control the growth of the POPULATE_____. POPULATE_____ is another problem that can lead to using more and more natural recourses.
8. During the past two hundred years, people have invented POWER_____ technology. Its rapid DEVELOP_____ often means DESTROY_____ of the environment.
9. A lot of animals are classified as DANGER_____ species and registered in the Red Data Book.