

PHONICS (SPL CONSONANT CLUSTERS)

A consonant cluster is a group of consonants which has no vowels in between.

Examples: spl- splash scr- scream str- strong

Use the 'spl' words below to correctly complete each of the following sentences.
Drag and drop the answer on the lines provided.

splinters splash split splat splendid

1. Terry fell into the water with a huge _____.
2. Jenny dropped the egg and it _____ when it fell to the ground.
3. Mother warned us to look out for _____ after my brother broke the glass on the kitchen floor.
4. My friend and I had a _____ time at the park yesterday.
5. My sister and I will _____ the money our father promised to give us tomorrow.

