

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Complete the paragraph by filling in the blank spaces with the words in the word box.

“A man was going down from Jerusalem to _____, when he fell into the hands of _____. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A _____ happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by the other side. So too, a _____ when he came to the place and saw the man, he passed by on the other side. But a _____, as he travelled, came by where the man was, and when he saw him took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, then he put the oil on his own _____, took him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave it to the innkeeper. “Look after him, he said’, and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra _____ you may have.’

“Which of these do you think were a _____ to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?”

The expert in the law replied. “The one who had _____ on him.”

Jesus told him, “Go and do _____.”
