

Activity 1: Complete the paragraph below

Little Albatross – Part 1

Then one _____ day Mother and Father Albatross looked at Little Albatross and saw how big he was, and how strong. It would be quite _____, they thought, to leave him for a _____ and go off fishing together.

So _____ flew, out over the cliff top, singing _____ their soaring song, the song of the wandering albatross. _____ did not see the killer bird beneath them. But the killer bird saw them. He was watching. He was _____

“Oh Father! Oh Mother!” _____ Little Albatross, who had never before been left on his own. “Come back! Come back!”

But the wind screamed and the _____ roared and _____ could not hear him. Out over the surging sea they soared, _____ on the look-out for silver flashing fish swimming below them in the surging sea. One glimpse was all _____ needed.

Activity 2: Complete the sentences using “and, or, but, so, because”

- 1 Max was crossing the road. _____ He was hit by a bicycle.
- 2 Max rolled into a ball. _____ He wasn't hurt too badly.
- 3 He knew that he could stay near the road. _____ He could go home.
- 4 He wobbled as he walked. _____ He had a bad headache.
- 5 His sisters knew he was hurt. _____ They wanted to ask him questions.
- 6 Max hurt his head. _____ His thoughts were muddled.