

Tom's cross examination

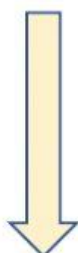

En classe, nous avons commencé à trouver des questions à poser à Tom pour avoir plus de détails sur son histoire.

1. Remets les mots des questions dans l'ordre :

1	Why	come to the door	did	the police
→					?
2	you	Were	to loud music	listening
→					?
3	making	you	Were	a lot of noise
→					?
4	the subject	was	What	of your exam
→					?

2. Trouve la traduction de chaque question :

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | • | • Quel était le sujet de votre examen ? |
| 2 | • | • Etiez-vous en train d'écouter de la musique forte ? |
| 3 | • | • Pourquoi la police est-elle venue à la porte ? |
| 4 | • | • Etiez-vous en train de faire beaucoup de bruit ? |

3. Ecoute le document et complète l'histoire avec les mots que tu as compris :

Tom's cross-examination

Fiona: First ; Why did come to in the middle of the ?

Tom: Because the phoned them!

Fiona: Were you listening to very loud , Sir?

Tom: No, we weren't... //

Rose: Oh... Were you making a lot of ?

Tom: No, we weren't...

Fiona: Wait! You said you were working on a final , but you go to a musical theatre ... //

So perhaps, you were in fact rehearsing.

Tom: Yes, we were... //

Fiona: And which musical was it Sir?

Tom: West Side Story! //

Rose: West Side Story... right... West side... I've got it! You were rehearsing the fighting scene! You were being Riff and...

Fiona: and Bernardo...

Rose: and Bernardo... Riff and Bernardo...

Tom: Bingo! //

Fiona: Oh... And the neighbours saw you...

Tom: Yeah..., the was open because we were and they thought that we were for real... with knives! //

Fiona: That's too funny, Tom! That's hilarious!

Rose: Yeah, that's a really good one... Tell us the whole story!

Tom: OK!
