

-ed and -ing adjectives

Exercise 1

Choose the correct form.

1. This grammar lesson bores me. I am bored / boring because grammar is bored/boring.
2. English doesn't excite me. English is not excited / exciting so I am not excited/exciting.
3. My job is tired / tiring. I have to carry heavy boxes all day. When I get home from work, I'm tired / tiring. If there is an interested / interesting show on TV, I'll watch it. If not, I'll go to bed.
4. I'm taking an English course at university. It is difficult. Sometimes English grammar is confused / confusing. Yesterday, my teacher tried to explain participial adjectives. I was confused / confusing. I was surprised/surprising that everyone understood it but me.
5. I don't like people who speak loudly on their mobile phones. They are annoyed / annoying.
6. Sometimes it sounds like they are arguing. Maybe they are just excited / exciting about what they are talking about.
7. The instructions in the exam were very complicated and left the students feeling totally confused / confusing.
8. I don't think that horror films are frightened / frightening - in fact, I find them quite funny.
9. Would you be interested / interesting in coming to the theatre this evening? I have a spare ticket.
10. Can't you fix that dripping tap? It's getting on my nerves - it's really irritated / irritating.
11. I didn't expect to see Peter at the party. I was really surprised / surprising to see him there.
12. He's had a lot of bad news recently and is feeling a bit depressed / depressing. Let's go and cheer him up.
13. I find it relaxed / relaxing to lie on the sofa and listen to music after a hard day's work.
14. I was told the film was really good but I felt utterly bored / boring by it.
15. I get really annoyed / annoying when people throw rubbish down in the streets. It makes me furious.
16. If I said anything as stupid as he did in front of a thousand people, I'd feel really embarrassed / embarrassing.
17. The kitchen hadn't been cleaned for ages. It was really disgusted / disgusting.
18. I'm starting a new job next week. I'm quite excited / exciting about it.
19. The lecture was bored / boring. I fell asleep.
20. It's sometimes embarrassed / embarrassing when you have to ask people for money.
21. The nurse's needle was frightened / frightening, I felt frightened / frightening when she looked at me.
22. This morning my alarm clock wouldn't stop ringing. It has a very annoyed / annoying sound. When I hear it, I get annoyed / annoying.

23. I loved the book, but I thought the film was very disappointed / disappointing.

24. She is very pleased / pleasing with her exam results.

25. My young daughter is terrified / terrifying of dogs.

26. That lamp produces a very pleased / pleasing effect.

27. Life is so frustrated / frustrating sometimes.

28. The news was so shocked / shocking that she burst into tears.

29. The whole family was saddened / saddening by the loss of their dog.

30. She was touched / touching by the film. The ending was especially touched / touching.

31. Terrified / Terrifying at the thought of his first day at school, Jan began to cry.

32. As comforted / comforting as it is to be with your friends, everyone needs to spend some time alone.

33. How to get the cheese was confused / confusing. The result was a very confused / confusing mouse. (confusing, confused)

34. Cheer up. Don't feel so depressed / depressing. It will soon be Friday.

35. I don't understand how it is possible. I'm very surprised / surprising.

36. I heard some very interested / interesting gossip during my coffee break.

37. I heard a very amused / amusing story. It will put a smile on your face.

38. It's not surprised / surprising that you failed your driving test. You drive like a lunatic!

39. The Liverpool game has been postponed. I'm really disappointed / disappointing. I was really looking forward to watching it.

40. Their performance in the second half was very disappointed / disappointing. They played much worse than in the first half.