Skaters

Skaters are young people – mainly boys – who live and breathe skateboarding. You can find them in countries all over the world and, although they live far apart, their appearance, music and beliefs are not so different.

Kazakhstan

What do they look like? They dress in vests or T-shirts and long shorts in summer, and baggy trousers and jumpers in winter. They often wear hats or caps.

What music do they listen to? They like Kazakh rock music, as well as English-language rock and nu metal bands such as Blink 182 and Limp Bizkit.

Where do they hang out? Skaters gather in skate parks, or anywhere where there is space to skate. They sometimes make videos of each other performing impressive tricks and post them on social media.

What do they believe in? Be yourself and enjoy today!

United Kingdom

What do they look like? They like wearing baggy jeans or trousers and hooded tops, but good trainers are the most important part of their wardrobe. They also love labels and brand names and, of course, you rarely see them without their skateboards!

What music do they listen to? Rock music, like Blink 182 and Green Day.

What do they do in their free time? Besides skateboarding, they like playing computer games and hanging out with other skaters.

What do they believe in? Never give up! Keep trying until you succeed.
