Hi Kate,

I went to a concert last Saturday. I was at the front so I could see the band really well. The problem was I couldn't hear the music very well! There was a problem with the speakers. Luckily, I had my digital camera with me, so I could take some great photos. My friend took some photos on her mobile phone, too. Do you want to come to my house this afternoon? Bring your guitar!

You can play the guitar really well. When I was small I had piano lessons. I could play the piano really well. Now, my brother Max can't play any musical instruments. My cousin Anna is learning how to play the drums and she has to practise music every day.

See you later!

Ellie
