

Vocabulary and knowledge quiz G5

1. What is the gas that we need to live? _____
2. What is the organ that pumps blood through our body? _____
3. What is the system of our body called that takes care of breathing? _____
4. What is the system in our body called that is made up of our heart and blood vessels? _____
5. What is the system in our body called that takes care of digesting our food? _____
6. What is a pulse rate? _____
7. What do we call the process of taking air in and out of our body? _____
8. What is the red liquid that goes around our body and keeps us alive? _____
9. What happens to your pulse rate when you do exercise? _____
10. What happens to our breathing when we do exercise? _____
11. What gas do we breathe out after taking in air? _____
12. Where can you feel your heartbeat with your fingers? _____
13. What do we call a blood vessel that transports oxygen? _____
14. What do we call a blood vessel that transports carbon dioxide? _____
15. What do we call the system in our body that includes our brain and nerves? _____
16. What do we call the system in our body that controls movement? _____
17. What do we call the system of our bones? _____
18. How many bones does an adult human body have? _____
19. What is the strong heart muscle called? _____
20. What is another word for trachea? _____
21. What do we call the connection of bones? _____
22. What is a normal pulse rate when your body is relaxed? _____
23. What do you call a repeated movement or sound? _____
24. What do you call something that stays the same and doesn't change? _____
25. Explain shortly how to measure a pulse rate without a stethoscope?

