Yesterday, I was at my uncle's house in the countryside. It was a rainy day. It rained all day so there weren't any children in the field to play with me. I was at home with my uncle, my aunt and my cousin. We were in sweaters and jackets when we were outside because it was really cold. But we weren't in warm clothes at home because there was a fireplace. My grandparents were very nice. There were a lot of funny stories and delicious food for us in the room.
