

PEER-MEDIATION ACTIVITY

A promotional graphic for a live Q&A session. It features a woman with short brown hair, wearing a black and white striped shirt, gesturing with her right hand. The background is split into red and purple sections. Text on the right reads 'Live Q&A Mediation in the Language Classroom' in a mix of black and red fonts. Below this, it says 'Ideas for mediation activities and strategies'. In the bottom left, there is a circular inset photo of a man with glasses and a beard, with the text 'with Neil Harris' next to it. A 'Gallery Teachers' logo is in the top right corner.

Gallery Teachers

Live Q&A Mediation in the Language Classroom

with Neil Harris

Ideas for mediation
activities and strategies

STEP ONE: AGREE TO MEDIATE

RULES

Some rules to agree mediation in organized way:

1. Respect the turn to speak.
2. Tell always truth.
3. Tell the happened events without exalting or offending the other one.
4. knowing how to accept the mistakes.
5. knowing how to ask for the necessary apologies.
6. Demonstrate a good emotional balance.
- 7.
- 8.