Read the following text, and then answer the comprehension questions!

Afgan has always been my favorite singer. I had always been thinking of how I would feel when I met him. Then I was suddenly hit by lightning when I found out Afgan was coming to town for a concert in a local auditorium. A day before the concert, there would be a meet and-greet event at a local radio station. Feeling excited, I packed all my Afgan's to get his signature at the event.

On that bright and sunny Saturday morning, the radio station was full of fans. They were excited to wait for Afgan. They were ready to see his performance on the meet-and-greet. When he was finished with the song, the host announced that it was time for autographing the memorabilia. I prepared my CDs and began to stand in the line. When I arrived at the table, I was speechless. It was unreal just seeing Afgan that close. I thought it was really cool seeing him like that because he really just felt like a normal person, which was awesome. He was also very friendly, so I didn't feel too nervous when I had a chance to take pictures with him. He was just an amazing person.

That was one of the best days in my personal life history.

Match the words in the box based on the correct paragraph!

On my first day at senior high school in the morning I got on my new uniform and got my new bag. My best friend and I set off to walk to school together. We were both very nervous and excited. We weren't sure what to expect of high school.

Reorien tation

When we got there we were shown into our classrooms with our new teacher. It was quite scary because I didn't know most of the children. Then we went to our first lesson. The school is loads bigger than my last school and has plenty more classrooms.

orienta tion

We had lots of different subjects and the lessons were really fun. My favorites were art and English. I was really surprised to find we didn't get any homework. Maybe because it was the first day.

Event 1

I really like my new school, all my teachers are lovely, the lessons were really great and I've really enjoyed my first day. I'm not nervous now I've had my first day.
