

Name:

Date: Monday, May 10, 2021

Subject: Reading and Comprehension Assessment

Read the fable below and answer the following questions.

The Frog and the Ox

A young frog, amazed at the huge size of an ox, rushed to tell her father about the monster. The father frog, trying to impress his child, puffed himself up to look like the ox. The young frog said it was much bigger. Again the father puffed himself up. The young frog insisted the monster was even bigger. The father puffed and puffed - and burst!

1. Who are the characters in the story?
2. What happened at the beginning of the story?
3. What happened in the middle of the story?
4. What happened at the end of the story?
5. What is the moral of the story?

Read the story below and answer the following questions.

A Story About Looks

Once upon a time, there was a dog named Doggy who was so proud of her beautiful looks. Her only problem was growing next to a cat.

Every day, Doggy would say unkind words to a cat named Catty on his looks, all while Catty stayed quiet. Catty would cry all day long. All the other animals nearby tried to make Doggy see what she was doing, but she was too excited about her own looks.

One hot summer, the desert became dry, and there was no water left for the plants or animals. Doggy quickly began to get sick and very thirsty.

Looking to Catty, Doggy saw a bird dip his beak into the Catty's drinking bowl to drink some water. Feeling very thirsty and having nowhere else to go, Doggy asked Catty if she could have some water. The kind dog Doggy said "Yes you may!" helping them both through the hot summer, as friends.

6. What is the main idea of the story?

7. Choose the words that best describes the dog.

- a) mean
- b) not friendly
- c) nice

8. How did the Doggy's actions affect Catty?

Write two events in the story.