

Money Idioms

Use the pencil to draw a line from the idiom to the correct meaning:

MONEY TALKS

“ Don't throw good money after bad. ”

Out of debt, out of danger.

Lend your money and lose your friend.

HE WHO PAYS THE PIPER CALLS THE TUNE

"Don't put all your eggs in one basket."

If you see that what you are investing in is not working, stop wasting money on it.

Don't lend money to friends as this can adversely affect your friendship.

People without money can't choose, but have to make do with what they are given.

Money is very persuasive.

Don't put all your money in the same investment. If your only investment fails, you'll be in trouble.

When we no longer owe money to anyone, we are safe and secure. The implication is that it is dangerous to owe money to anyone.

the person who provides the money for something decides what will be done, or has a right to decide what will be done.