

Maria's last vacations

- According to the Listening put the number to organize the story.

Finally, on the third day my whole family was in the aquarium and we really enjoyed that experience; we finally went home and when we got home we realized that our pet Toby was already much better, so we were all happy.

Hello, I am Maria, and I want to share with you my experience during my last vacation.

During the second day my father was in bed since he was very tired, however my brothers, my mother and I were energetic and we went to tour the city.

However, my mom was sad because we couldn't take our pet Toby as he was sick. On our first morning in Santa Marta, my family and I were walking on the beach, then we went to eat at a very nice restaurant.

First, my family and I went to Santa Marta, my brothers and I were happy because we did not know the sea.
