8. Identifica estas notas e indica traste en el que se interpretan en la sexta cuerda de tu guitarra.
Para nombrar la nota puedes usar su forma latina (mi, fa, sol...) o la anglo-sajona (E, F, G...)

Two musical staves are shown. The top staff has a treble clef and a '0' above it. It features a red square with 'MI' and a blue square with 'E'. The bottom staff has a treble clef and a circled '6' below it. Both staves have a series of eighth-note heads. To the left of the staves is a grid diagram for the 6th string of a guitar, with columns labeled '1r.', '2º', '3r.', and '4º' from left to right. The grid has six rows, each representing a fret. The first row is labeled 'MI/E', the second 'FA/F', and the third 'SOL/G'. The bottom row is labeled with a circled '6'.
