Choose the correct form of the verbs to complete the conversation. Listen and check.

David Did I ever tell you about how I ¹*met / was meeting* a museum guide in Hamburg?

Emma No, I don't think so.

David It was in 2012, while I ²*travelled / was travelling* around Germany. I ³*waited / was waiting* for a train to Berlin, but I was hungry, so I ⁴*went / was going* to a café to buy a sandwich. While I ⁵*sat / was sitting* there, a man at another table ⁶*got up / was getting up* and ⁷*left / was leaving* his wallet.

Emma Oh no! What did you do?

David I ⁸*ran / was running* after him and ⁹*gave / was giving* him the wallet back. But the funny thing is, when I ¹⁰*got / was getting* to the platform later, the same man ¹¹*waited / was waiting* for the train.

Emma Really?

David Yes, and he ¹²*was / was being* a museum guide at the Pergamon Museum in Berlin! He ¹³*offered / was offering* to show me around to thank me for finding his wallet. The museum was amazing!
