READ THE TIPS ON BUSINESS ETIQUETTE. THEN READ THE SITUATIONS BELOW.

TIPS ON BUSINESS ETIQUETTE

- Always introduce the most important person first.
- Use your business card as a way to stay in touch with people you meet. Exchanging and saving business cards can help you “network” with people later.
- Being on time is absolutely necessary for business appointments. The rule is to arrive ten to fifteen minutes early. However, for social events, such as business parties, it is considered impolite to arrive early.
- In major cities, business clothing is usually formal. Blue, black, or gray suites are conservative and always appropriate. In warm climates, neat and comfortable khakis, jeans. Or slacks, sometimes with a jacket, are OK. However, the first time you visit a company, it is always best to start with a conservative look.
- Business conversations often take place during meals. The meals are a time to relax, get to know the other person socially, and then talk a little business. Depending on the person’s schedule, these meeting can be at breakfast, lunch, or dinner.
- Eye contact is very important. Always look at everyone in your conversation group. Move your eyes from one person to another. It makes people feel important and holds their attention.

Decide if the behavior in each situation is a appropriate or inappropriate. Write APPROPRIATE or INAPPROPRIATE in the space provided.
