- ♦thrift: _____ ♦stingy: _____ ♦be obsessed with: _____ ♦puppet: _____
 ♦manipulate: _____ ♦merely: _____ ♦taste: _____ ♦precious: _____
 ♦make donations: _____ ♦in need: _____

In addition, / I hope [that you will become a thrifty person, / ~~not~~ a stingy one]. Thrifty people don't spend money (on unnecessary things). On the other hand, / stingy people hardly spend any money at all. [Because they are obsessed with the idea (that money should never be spent)], // they become puppets (that are manipulated / by money). I want you / to spend money / on (what you really enjoy), (such as watching your favorite movies or going to art exhibitions). (B) And (instead of liking something merely [because it is expensive]), try to develop your own tastes [when it comes to precious and beautiful things].

Finally, be glad to share your money (with others). [If you make donations / to people (in need)], // you'll see the truly positive influence [that money can have].

I hope [you will keep my advice (in mind) and grow to be an adult (who uses money wisely)].
