

Date:
Name:

Unit 1: Test

1- Reading:

Look at the picture. Write T (True) or F (False) next to each sentence.

- a- There's a night side table next to the bed.
- b- There is a bin under the desk.
- c- There are two books on the desk.
- d- The window has red curtains.
- e- There isn't a shelf above the bed.
- f- In the room there are two posters on the walls.
- g- There's a tree behind the window.
- h- There are eight books in the bookcase.

2- Grammar. Fill in the blanks with the right preposition:

a- There's a yellow lamp _____ the night side table.

b- There's a green rug _____ the bed.

c- There are two boxes, a brown and a purple one, _____ the bookshelf.

d- There's a poster _____ the bed.

e- There's a pink box _____ the purple and the green books in the bookcase.

3- Choose the right option:

a- My sister have got/ has got a big bed in her bedroom.

b- I haven't got/ hasn't got many books on my bookshelf.

c- Have/ Has you got a garden in your house?

d- She haven't got/ hasn't got many/much posters on her walls.

e- My sister and me have got/ has got separate bedrooms.

f- My house isn't/ aren't big.

g- In my house, the bathrooms' walls is/ are white.

4- Writing:

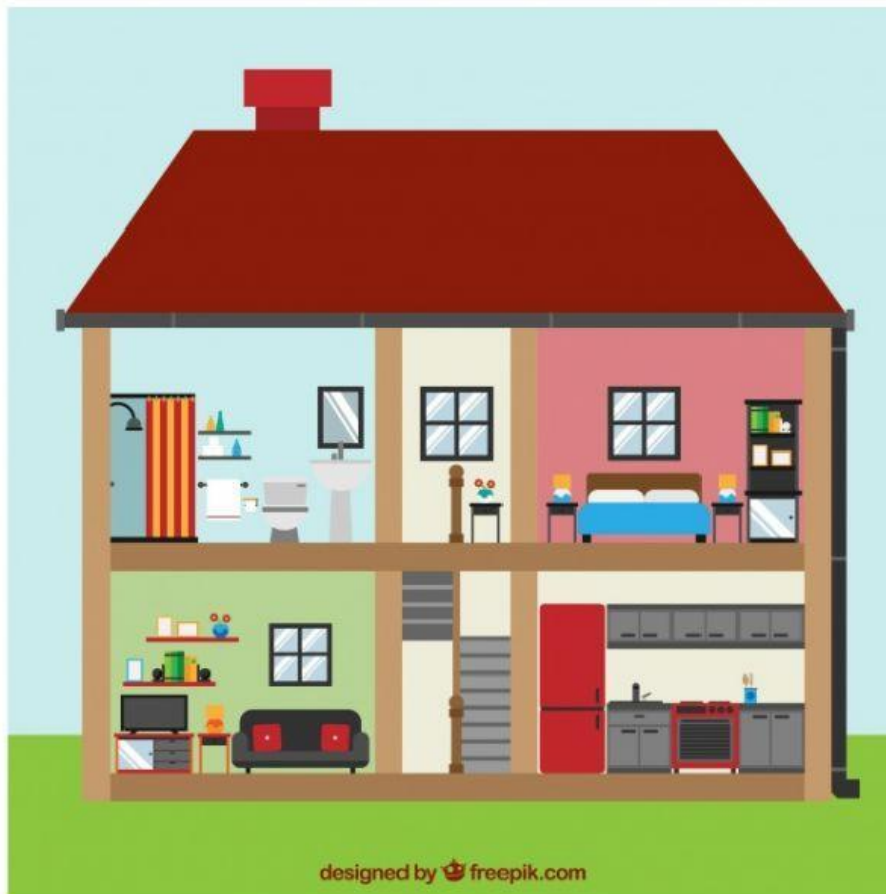

Look at the pictures. Write 5 sentences about the house.

Use: there is/ are/ isn't/ aren't.

4 prepositions of place (on, in, under, etc.)

names of the parts of the house (kitchen, bathroom, etc.)

vocabulary from the house (pictures, mirror, shower)

designed by  freepik.com