

ALTERNATIVES TO IMPRISONMENT.

Study the words.

Curfew – комендантский час Restorative justice – восстановительная юстиция sparingly - нечасто; умеренно Tagging

1. Watch the episode and match the phrases to the people that said them.

1. 	2. 	1. Opening new prisons will not solve the problem of crime. 2. Prisons are not the best place to solve the problems of crime. 3. The death sentence should be brought back. 4. For murder the punishment must be life sentence. 5. There's no argument to introduce the death penalty on the basis of deterrence.
3. 	4. 	6. The best alternative for them is to do something for the community, not a very pleasant job. 7. Community service is beneficial for society. 8. Community service deprives people of liberty, of their free time without locking them up. 9. Tagging is a fairly good idea.
5. 	6. 	10. They'll feel more guilty when they see the person who they've committed a crime towards. 11. There should be more financial penalties for minor crimes. 12. We should move to a day time or a unit time system. 13. Rehabilitation groups should help juveniles. 14. Reaching the age of 18 doesn't mean that you've become a responsible adult.

2. Mark the statements as True or False.

1. Most people in the prison have problems of one sort or another.
2. There is no vivid relation between death penalty and deterring violent crimes.
3. Community service has enough resourcing and placement, opportunities.
4. The problem with community service is that very often offenders don't complete all hours of work.
5. House arrest and curfews can be imposed through electronic tagging.
6. This video is about Australia.
7. People who have gone through the system of restorative justice are unlikely to reoffend.
8. Most victims that took part in the system of restorative justice felt depressed and disappointed.
9. The problem with fines is that people who commit minor crimes are indigent.
10. Reparation orders are community based initiatives.

3. Discuss with your partner. Write your opinion.

We need to be using prisons sparingly to protect the society from dangerous and violent criminals, but trying to avoid using prisons where it can make the matters worse, particularly for non-violent crimes, when there are options that can work better.