

Name: _____

Using HOPE and WISH to talk about the Future

READ:

Use	Hope is used to talk about events that are likely.	Wish is used to talk about things that are not likely (unlikely)
grammar	I hope + present tense She hopes + will base verb *They hope + can + base verb *can expresses ability or choice	He wishes + were verb+ing to base verb We wish + past tense I wish + would base verb *They wish + could base verb *could expresses ability or choice.

A. Does the speaker think this sentence is likely or unlikely?

1. I hope children will have inclass school in the fall.
2. I wish we could get together tomorrow.
3. I wish you were coming to Canada this summer.
4. I hope he continues in the ESL class next year.
5. I hope you do well on your test.

B. Complete the sentence with the correct verb tense.

1. I hope she _____ better soon.
2. My family hopes I _____ home next year.
3. My parents wish they _____ to Canada.
4. I wish we _____ to my parents' house for dinner.
5. I hope we _____ the test tomorrow.
6. The government hopes Canadians _____ the vaccine.
7. My sister hopes she _____ to CLB 7 class in June.
8. I hope I _____ to my sister tomorrow.

C. Complete two sentences: I hope & I wish

Example: Schools might be closed for another month.
I hope schools aren't closed for another month.
I wish schools wouldn't be closed for another month.

1. My neighbour has a loud party every Friday. I don't like it.
I hope my neighbour _____ a large party.
I wish my neighbour _____ a large party.
2. House prices aren't going down in the city.
I hope house prices _____ down.
I wish house prices _____ down.
3. My vaccine appointment might be tomorrow.
I hope my vaccine appointment _____ tomorrow.
I wish my vaccine appointment _____ tomorrow.
4. The school might offer mental health support for students.
I hope the school _____ mental health support for students.
I wish the school _____ mental health support for students.
5. *We might be able to go camping this summer.
I hope we _____ camping this summer.
I wish we _____ camping this summer.
6. *You might be able to write the driver's test next month.
I hope you _____ the driver's test.
I wish you _____ the driver's text.

D. Write your own sentences.

1. What do you hope for?
2. What do you wish for?