

Parts of Speech Summary

Write each interjection below.

1. Oh! Look at these pictures of imaginary animals! _____
2. Hooray! Here is a picture of a griffin. _____
3. Aha! It's half lion, half eagle, and very beautiful! _____
4. Eek! What's coming out of that fire? _____
5. Wow! It is a phoenix, of course. _____

Two words are underlined in each sentence, Write the part of speech of each underlined word.

EXAMPLE: The phoenix rises from its own ashes.

ANSWER: verb, noun

6. The awful Hydra had at least 100 heads. _____
7. Many heroes tried to kill the Hydra. _____
8. They attempted to cut off its heads. _____
9. However, two new heads quickly replaced each lost head. _____
10. The Leucrocotta was an imaginary animal from India. _____
11. It had the tail and chest of a lion. _____
12. People thought it could imitate the human voice. _____
13. I'm really glad there aren't any around now! _____
14. The unicorn is my favorite imaginary animal. _____
15. It looks much like a white pony. _____
16. However, it has a magical horn on its head. _____
17. People hunted the unicorn for its magical horn. _____